FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTARY

- Yield of the MYR government bonds and sukuks inched higher across the curve on Tuesday after BNM maintains OPR at the current 1.75% level as the central bank remains optimistic on economic recovery. Downside risk to growth outlook remains, following the recent resurgence in Covid-19 cases. We view that the central bank still has room for further policy easing in 2021 if needed, prospects of further easing remain data dependent. We reaffirm our views that MYR bond market to remain supported amid continued attractiveness in real yield perspective given the low and benign inflation level. The market will also receive Budget 2021 on 6-Nov, but we are of the view that all parties will view the importance of fiscal spending to continue undisturbed. This suggests that the presentation of the Budget 2021 in Parliament is likely to go ahead with little or no opposition.
- In view of the uncertain global economic outlook and volatile market condition, the Manager in its opinion will solely focus on capital preservation exercise and maintaining short to medium cash portfolio with approved financial institutions.
