BANK MUAMALAT CONTRIBUTES MEALS TO FRONTLINERS

Kuala Lumpur, 25 February, 2021 – In appreciation of the roles of Malaysian frontliners in the on-going battle against the COVID-19 pandemic, Bank Muamalat Malaysia Berhad (Bank Muamalat) distributed 1,500 packed meals to healthcare workers, policemen, firemen, army personnel and civil servants around the Klang Valley from 15 February until 22 February 2021.

The packed meals were prepared by the kitchen staff of Al-Bukhary Mosque, Jalan Hang Tuah, in Kuala Lumpur before being distributed to the frontliners on duty at Hospital Kuala Lumpur (HKL), Jalan Tun H.S. Lee Police Station, Jalan Hang Tuah Fire and Rescue Department, Wardieburn Camp, Jalan Genting Kelang and other government agencies.

Bank Muamalat Chief Executive Officer, Khairul Kamarudin said the initiative was part of the Bank's corporate social responsibility (CSR) programme to show its appreciation to the nation's selfless frontliners.

"We want our frontliners who are working hard to contain the spread of the pandemic to know that they are always in our thoughts and that we too, care for their well-being. We, at Bank Muamalat are humbled by their unwavering dedication to support our communities and provide crucial services during these challenging times," said Khairul.

In view of the ongoing Movement Control Order (MCO) 2.0, Bank Muamalat also ensured that all SOPs were adhered to during the preparation and distribution of the packed meals.

As daily COVID-19 cases remain high, Bank Muamalat continues to take aggressive steps to safeguard the health and safety of its customers, staff and communities while ensuring the delivery of important financial services. These include adhering to safety protocols and guidelines from local health authorities in relation to social interactions, hygiene, and visits to Bank Muamalat.
